CHRISTMAS PARTY AT JUVENILE GRANGE

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night at the Grange Hall with the Master Barry Denham presiding.

Joanne Pierce reported Michael Menezes had been in the hospital. She then circulated a Christmas card to all who signed their name, and it will be mailed to Michael.

Doris Fearing, Home and Community Service chairman, reported progress on the program the Juniors are presenting at the Mattapoisett Nursing Home. All those participating will meet at the Grange Hall Thursday, December 20th, at 4 o'clock for a rehearsal.

A Christmas party was enjoyed with soft recorded music, carol singing, and a treasure hunt conducted by the lecturer, Marilyn Lewis, with Steven Kelley finding the most hidden papers.

The Legend of the Christmas Tree was given by Joanne Pierce.

The hall was decorated by Kathy Alves, Carolyn and Marilyn Lewis, Joanne Pierce, Susan Silva and the Master Barry Denham who brought in the tree, with all decorating it. Santa Claus, impersonated by Ronald Scott, came in by the recording of "Twas the Night Before Christmas". He distributed gifts from the "bag" on his back.

The worthy master presented Mrs. LeBaron a Christmas gift from the Junior members.

The war seen through Mattapoisett eyes. (Mrs. Purrington's Diary):

Sept. 1. Sad faces and sad hearts tonight because of the sad news we have received from the seat of war. We hear of a terrible battle in which the rebels are victorious. Our army is much disorganized, and Washington is again in danger. (The Second Battle of Bull Run -- only 30 miles from Washington).

Sept. 2 17,000 of our men are reported lost, in killed and wounded. God grant that there may be no more such dreadful sacrifices.

Sept. 3. War news is still discouraging. Great fears are entertained for the safety of Washington.

Sept. 8. We hear more bad news-- the rebels have invaded Maryland.

Sept. 16. The draft in Massachusetts postponed until the 1st of October.

Sept. 18. We receive good tidings from the war today--tho' there must be terrible loss of life in these battles. (Refers to the Battle of Antietam where the Confederate forces finally received a check.)

Sept. 25. A great many have left our village

AFS MEETING

The name, Old Rochester Regional Chapter of American Field Service, was voted for the new three-town chapter comprising Marion, Rochester and Mattapoisett at a meeting at the Old Rochester Regional High School. Mrs. A. Barton Cummins presided.

It was also voted that dues of $1 per couple be assessed for incidental expenses.

Mrs. Cummins announced that the deadline for application for a student for next September was February 15 and the papers are now being prepared to send to headquarters in New York. Interest in the Americans Abroad phase of the program has also been expressed.

Various methods of raising money for the program were discussed and the appointment of a finance chairman for each town was suggested. With regard to selling Shares in Democracy, it was decided to contact Miss Carol Arenberg, chairman of the A.F.S. for the school student council and also to clear the matter of raising money with the school committees.

Each year in June the foreign students from all over the country are given a bus tour of the United States and some of the chapters assume the responsibility of entertaining them and finding overnight lodging for them when they are in the area. The possibility of doing this was considered.

Mrs. Cummins reported that Mr. Severance had been able to obtain six, and possibly eight tickets to the Wareham Chapter's annual banque and student panel discussion planned for January 31. Stephen Galatti, director-general of the American Field Service, will be present.

There was discussion of a permanent monthly meeting date for the chapter and it was thought that the third or fourth Wednesdays of each month would be suitable, preceded by an executive board meeting the week before.

IT'S PAPA WHO PAYS?

A quintet of dads may be limping slightly this week but after the dust settled on the floor of combat they marched off with a 48 to 45 victory over the teachers of the Mattapoisett Center School on Friday evening. In a remarkably close contest, which was all tied up at the end of the half and third quarter, the dads snatched the victory in the final moments of the game. The teachers showed the result of some practice as they set up some fancy plays around the basket. The dads showed the result of raw courage as they took the floor for the first time as a team after short minutes of shooting practice before the game. Both teams were iron men playing every minute of the contest since there were no reserves for either side.

In spite of this lack of depth, there was not a let-up in the fast pace of the game. Bob Mathieson for the Fathers showed plenty of class in ball handling and an uncanny eye in shooting, as he hit for many two pointers and was deadly when shooting foul shots. George Monteiro, for the same team, displayed skill in set shooting as he swished many shots in from the extreme range. The other members of the team handled the ball very well on offense and were tough on defense stealing the ball on occasion. The teachers made a real battle of it as they were able to set up many offensive plays close to the basket for tip in two pointers. High scorer for the teachers was center John Moynihan, tall and fast, with a good eye. Joe Kobak hit for several inside 2 pointers.

Others playing for the fathers were Bob Fietz, Charlie Dunn and Phil Silveira. For the teachers, Bronc Caswell, Maurice Tavares and Billy Campbell from the Regional School. The game was refereed by Ernie Dorr.

The Parent-Teachers Club sponsored this game and it was a good one. Chests may slip a bit and old skills may fade slightly but, when the chips are down, watch Big Daddy.

INITIATION CEREMONIES FOR FELLOWSHIP

Impressive ceremonies marked the initiation of ten young people into the Pilgrim Fellowship of First Congregational Church of Rochester. The initiation services were held at the First Congregational Church with Miss Janice K. Lawrence, president of the Pilgrim Fellowship, presiding.

Worship services were conducted by Miss Lawrence and Raymond Daggett, vice-president of Pilgrim Fellowship. Offering was taken by Miss Susan Chadwick, treasurer, and Miss Lawrence. The president spoke on the meaning of the Pilgrim Fellowship and Miss Esther-Ann Chamberlain, secretary, spoke to the new members explaining the meaning of the Pilgrim Fellowship symbol.

Benediction was given by Miss Lawrence at the conclusion of the initiation ceremonies. Witnessing the initiation were the Fellowships of the Methodist and Congregational Churches of Marion, guests of the Rochester Pilgrim Fellowship.

New Pilgrim Fellowship members include Joyce Thompson, Roger Nolan, Kathey Burke, Betty Tuttle, Nancy Tuttle, Dennis Arruda, Sheila Walker, Lorna Lizotte, Wayne Lawrence and Robert Lawrence.

The more than 60 young people then went to the vestry of First Congregational Church for a recreation hour. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Daggett, Miss Martha Fearing, advisors to the Pilgrim Fellowship; the Rev. Arthur R. Lundberg, pastor of the First Congregational Church, and Mrs. Doris G. Gurney, organist at the church. Mrs. Gurney played the organ for the hymns.
